EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS, Austin, TX

Graduate Department of Human Ecology, Division of Human Development and Family Sciences

2004 Ph.D.

2000 M.A.

Dissertation title: The Social Implications of Children's Media Use.

- Used a nationally representative survey dataset to test the relationship between children's media use and their social behaviors and social isolation. Findings showed that children's use of violent media, but not use of non-violent media, was related to more anti-social behaviors and less time spent with peers.
- Committee Chair: Elizabeth A. Vandewater, Ph.D.
- Committee Members: Ellen A. Wartella, Ph.D., Aletha C. Huston, Ph.D., Joanne Cantor, Ph.D., & Edward Anderson, Ph.D.

Comprehensive paper: From Interactions to Identities: Redefining Adolescent Social Relationships through the Internet Experience.

Master's thesis: Television Ratings and the Viewing Preferences of Children: A Comparison of Three Systems.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE, Haverford, PA

1995 B.A. in Psychology

Senior research thesis: No More Pencils, No More Books: A Study Concerning the Effects of Developmental Level and Individual Differences on Computer Ability in Elementary School.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

2006-present Instructor of Pediatrics/Research Scientist

The Center on Media and Child Health (CMCH)
Boston Children's Hospital / Harvard Medical School

Conceptualize, design, implement, and seek funding for an independent research program. Design and conduct core CMCH research projects often in collaboration with other scientists at Boston Children's Hospital or elsewhere. Advise and mentor graduate, undergraduate, and medical fellows in the area of media influences on child health. Oversee and manage interns, research assistants, and work study students.

2004-2006 Post-Doctoral Research Scientist

The Center on Media and Child Health (CMCH)
Boston Children's Hospital

Initialized an independent research project. Developed, managed, and sought funding for large research projects in collaborative work between CMCH and other institutions.
Center director: Michael Rich, M.D., M.P.H.

2001-2004 Project Manager

The Center for Research on Interactive Technology, Television and Children (CRITC)
The University of Texas at Austin

Coordinated a team of graduate research assistants and trained incoming students in data management and analyses skills. Managed data files used by a group of faculty and graduate researchers. Assisted the center director in the conception, preparation and submission of grant applications to federal and private sources.
Advisor/Center director: Elizabeth A. Vandewater, Ph.D.

2003-2004 Research Assistant

Children's Digital Media Center (CDMC)
The University of Texas at Austin

Contributed to the conceptualization and design of research projects and the preparation of presentations for this federally funded center. Participated in research through CDMC's affiliation with organizations and companies such as the Kaiser Family Foundation, NICHD, Fischer Price, and Kraft.
Advisors/Center directors: Ellen A. Wartella, Ph.D. & Elizabeth A. Vandewater, Ph.D.

1998-2001 Research Assistant*CRITCThe University of Texas at Austin

Worked as a member of a research team to manage data, develop multiple coding schemes, research and code television titles, analyze data, and prepare study findings for conference presentations and journal publications. Participated in every aspect of the research process from the conception of research questions and the integration of theory to the analysis of data and the interpretation of findings.

Advisors: John C. Wright, Ph.D., Aletha C. Huston, Ph.D., & Elizabeth A. Vandewater, Ph.D.

2001 Summer Research InternNickelodeon Research DepartmentNew York, NY

Coded television programs and performed initial data analyses for a research project investigating the prevalence of racial diversity in the most popular television shows for children. Participated in departmental and network-wide development meetings and visited other research departments throughout the network.

Internship supervisor: Marsha Williams, Ph.D.

2001 July Research AssistantSesame WorkshopNew York, NY

Aided in the collection of observational data of children's attention to a new format of Sesame Street. Assisted in the formation of data files and primary data analyses.

RESEARCH AND PROGRAM SUPPORT

Title: Faculty Development Fellowship. Investigating How Adolescents Use Electronic Media and Communication Technologies as a Strategy for Coping with Symptoms of Depression, 7/1/15-6/30/17

Role: Principal Investigator

Responsibilities: Conduct research exploring the links between adolescents' media use and their mental health.

Funder: Boston Children's Hospital Office of Faculty Development

Title: Privacy is as Privacy Does: Bringing evidence-based behavior change strategy to digital safety, 3/1/15-2/28/16

Role: Co-Investigator

Responsibilities: Synthesize existing evidence concerning effective health behavior change strategies for young people to be relevant to the design of online privacy and safety programs. Report these results in a white paper and distribute the findings to a wide audience of academics, professionals, and clinicians.

Funder: Digital Trust Foundation

Title: REELization: A service project to develop effective youth-generated HIV prevention media messages, 4/14- 4/15

Role: Co-Principal Investigator

Responsibilities: Design and deliver a service and research program that works with African American adolescents to write, produce, and film a public service announcement about HIV prevention and translate the curriculum to an online facilitators' guide.

Funder: Aerosmith Endowment Fund at Boston Children's Hospital

Title: An educational service program to create a youth generated video social marketing campaign to reduce HIV/AIDS among young African Americans, 4/13- 4/14

Role: Co-Principal Investigator

Responsibilities: Design and deliver a service and research project that develops and tests a curriculum in which African American adolescents write, produce, and film a public service announcement about HIV prevention.

Funder: Aerosmith Endowment Fund at Boston Children's Hospital

The Impact of Advergaming on Food Choice: Implications for Obesity and Nutrition Interventions, 2010-2012

Role: Principal Investigator

Responsibilities: Conduct research that uses an experimental design to test the varying impact of online interactive food ads associated with their level of product integration. Children ages 7 to 9 provide self reports about their desire for foods and their nutritional beliefs as well as participate in food behavior choice measures after playing one of three randomly assigned advergaming.

Funding Source: Children's Hospital Boston Clinical Research Program

CyberHero Mobile Cell Phone Safety Curriculum Design and Assessment, 2011-2012

Role: Principal Investigator

Responsibilities: Work with a team including specialists in education and youth cell phone use to develop a curriculum for teaching young people safe and healthy cell phone use. Advise on the translation of this curriculum into an online video game delivery system and evaluate the success of the program.

Funding Source: Internet KeepSafe Coalition/Sprint

Media Power Youth Health-Focused Media Literacy Intervention: Enhancing the Evaluation, 2009-2010

Role: Principal Investigator of sub-contract

Responsibilities: Design and implement an evaluation that advances the current scientific evidence of effectiveness of the MediaSmart media literacy curriculum.

Funding Source: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Measuring Youth Media Exposure, 2008-2010

Role: Co-Investigator

Responsibilities: Designed measures for a multi-method approach to assessing young people's media exposure. Will analyze data for reliability and validity across methods and links between media exposure and health outcomes.

Funding Source: National Institute for Child Health and Human Development

Cyberbullying among University Students, 2009

Role: Principal Investigator of sub-contract

Responsibilities: Manage data collection for the US site of a Canada-based study examining the prevalence of cyberbullying and harassment among University students. Collaborate with the PI (Tanya Beran) in the writing of research articles based on the project's findings.

Funding Source: Calgary Institute for Children and the Family

Boston Public Health Commission: Building Healthy Teen Relationships, 2008-2012

Role: Collaborating Investigator

Responsibilities: Plan and design the media education and community communication campaign for a program designed to reduce the occurrence of relationship violence.

Funding Source: The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Take the Challenge Curriculum Evaluation, 2008-2010

Role: Principal Investigator of sub-contract

Responsibilities: Performed focus-group based formative evaluation of media education curriculum. Designed a multi-school, longitudinal evaluation of educational program collecting data from students, parents, and teachers. Will analyze and report findings upon completion of data analyses

Funding Source: Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate School District, Escanaba Michigan

IKeepSafe Parent Project: Developing Tools to Motivate Parents to Protect Their Children Online, 2006 to 2008

Role: Co-Investigator

Responsibilities: Designed an evaluation determining the effectiveness of an online intervention designed to educate parents about strategies for protecting their children as they use the Internet. Collaborated with Harris Interactive to collect data and performed analyses comparing parents exposed to the content with those who were not.

Funding Source: Subcontract of a grant provided by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention

Connect with Kids: Washington DC and Northern Virginia In-School Evaluation, 2006-2008

Role: Co-Investigator

Responsibilities: Designed a quasi-experimental study to determine the effectiveness of an in-school intervention that uses professionally produced video segments in combination with classroom training to encourage positive social behaviors in children and young adolescents.

Funding source: Sprint

MediaSmart Schools: Media Literacy as Health Intervention, 2005-2007

Role: Co-Investigator

Responsibilities: Designed an evaluation to assess the success of a media literacy curriculum in the Manchester New Hampshire School district. Conducted focus groups of elementary school students who participated in the program. Analyzed survey data and prepared a final report combining qualitative and quantitative findings.

Funding source: Cabot Family Foundation

HONORS AND AWARDS

Living Laboratory Scholarship, Boston Museum of Science. 2012

- Awarded to fund research recruitment and educational outreach conducted at the Museum of Science.

University Continuing Fellowship, University of Texas at Austin, Graduate School. 2000-2001

- Granted in recognition of accomplishments during graduate school and plans proposed for the fellowship year.

Departmental Career Development Award, University of Texas at Austin, Department of Human Ecology. 2000-2004

- Awarded in recognition of research accepted for presentation at academic conferences.

Gertrude Heller Grant, Haverford College. 1993

- Awarded in recognition of dedicated service to children with mental disabilities.
